

Public Consultation on the Evaluation of the European Union's Policy Coherence for Development (2009-2016)

Introduction

Before completing the survey we suggest to read the background document for this Open Public Consultation. Your feedback is highly important and will help the evaluation team and the Commission services to provide an evidence-based assessment of the EU's approach to Policy Coherence for Development (PCD). If some of the questions are not relevant for you, please tick the "Do not have an opinion" box and proceed to the next questions. Please try as much as possible to substantiate your replies giving examples or pointing to other potential sources of evidence. It should take you maximum 15 minutes to respond to the survey.

Questions

1. Do you consider that the way in which PCD has been implemented in the EU has been/is relevant?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain here why you think this is the case

1.1. Has it responded well to the evolving (past and current) needs of developing countries?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain here why you think this is the case

1.2. Has it responded well to institutional changes at the Commission level and the European External Action Service?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain here why you think this is the case

1.3. Has it responded well to EU's development objectives?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain here why you think this is the case

2. In your opinion, is the way in which PCD has been implemented in the EU coherent with wider EU policy and evolving international obligations of the EU?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain why, providing specific examples, as appropriate.

3. Do you consider that the use of PCD tools and mechanisms has been effective and efficient in influencing EU policies likely to affect developing countries so that they take account of development objectives?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain why, providing specific examples, as appropriate.

4. Do you consider that honoring the commitment to promote PCD by the EU has created additional value, beyond what could be achieved by the EU Member States acting independently?

- Yes
- No
- Do not have an opinion

Please explain why, providing specific examples, as appropriate.

5. Are you aware of any positive/ negative effects the 4 EU policies listed below may have had on developing countries around the world?

The EU policies/ initiatives concerned by this question are the following: a) Global Approach to Migration and Mobility; b) EU Action Plan against Wildlife Trafficking c) Common Fisheries Policy (reform of 2013); d) Generalised Scheme of Preferences.

- Yes
- No

If the answer is yes, please provide specific examples, as appropriate.

6. Should you have other views on the way in which PCD has been implemented by the EU, please provide them here.